MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Trip Report - [REDACTED]

25X1

REF: Department of Navy Request of 9 February 1959,
TCS 4367-59

[REDACTED] and the undersigned, in pursuance of the coordination required in reference, proceeded to NAS North Island, San Diego, to discuss proposed utilization of the U-2 by comfirstflt ship-board radar. [REDACTED] was unable to attend, but was advised of the action that was to be taken. It is his intention to personally visit North Island for final arrangements of the Navy request within the next ten days. The Navy representative was Capt. Bruce S. Weber, Operations Officer of the Comfirstflt. He was briefed thoroughly on the security of the subject and agreed to abide by the limitations as set forth in the basic correspondence. Capt. Weber was advised that the requested exercises carry no priority and would in no way interfere with scheduled priority operations at Edwards AFB. He was also advised of the approximate date that [REDACTED] would contact him.
